

N*E*R*D*, Provider

Woke up I had the same clothes on I had on last night

Damn

I must have passed out

Wake up baby

And cash is just like the clothes I worn yesterday

We are broke

Damn

I gotta get my ass out

So

I went to see what my friend was talking about

Drugs

He told me cocaine would get you clout

My momma said hes trouble and schools my route

But I went to high school and got kicked out

Yeah

So Im driving this truck down the 95

I pray to God I make it home alive

Yeah

I dont get pulled over by the man

I just want to make it home to hold your hand

Chorus

Goodbye beloved one

Do you know what I am

If you dont see my face no more

Im a provider girl, gotta face the streets tonight

Goodbye beloved one

Do you know what I am

If you dont see my face no more

Im a rider, girl gotta face the streets tonight

You say you dont want me to go but I have to

I gotta go

Please dont weep

I love you

Dont cry

I refuse to be a bum

Nah

Especially coming where Im from

Im a provider girl

And I love you

Hey

So its just like I said before

Heading down 95

Dodging Johnny law

I dont need a ticket though I never got one

If he pulls me over

He can feel my shotgun

I think about life pull down my hat

Its just like this road I dont know where Im at

Where am I

I dont want to be another cocaine story

Will I find my sanity

Where I find my glory

Come on

Chorus

Goodbye beloved one

Do you know what I am

If you dont see my face no more

Im a provider girl, gotta face the streets tonight

Goodbye beloved one

Do you know what I am

If you dont see my face no more

Im a rider girl, gotta face the streets tonight

Someday, Someday, this will be over

Well raise a family

Ill get a job and Ill be a voter
And if I die
It will change you
Change you
I watch over a family
But only as an angel
So dont tell me you dont know what you see
When youre looking at a mothafucker just like me
Im a provider girl
I love you
I said dont tell me you dont know what you see
When youre looking at a motherfucker just like me
Im a rider girl
Chorus
Goodbye beloved one
Do you know what I am
If you dont see my face no more
Im a provider girl, gotta face the streets tonight
Goodbye beloved one
Do you know what I am
If you dont see my face no more
Someday
I love you girl
Im doing this for us
I dont know any better
What am I supposed to do
Nothing I love you
