

Nada Surf, The Plan

there's a way to drive, i see it once in a while i watch the tail-lights and memorize i won't be too scared, i won't be too tired i'm becoming hard-wired feeling hazy, waking up inertia i'm having dreams i'm in the wrong picture am i older than you thought did you get less than you bought dan you wanna roast it dan we're gonna kick it in the head if we can me i'm just, me i'm just, i never got to read the plan dan you wanna roast it dan you know i never know the right way around i need a map to get us out of this town now your hand is flashing danger i'm underdressed and you're getting stranger i can't tell you i'm incomplete you're gonna step on me
