

Nada Surf, The Way You Wear Your Head

don't push me cause i'll fall in love with whatever you just said
with the way you wear your head out in the corner
you're glowing white
i want to want you
i need to need you
i'd love to love you
i want to want you
i need to need you
i'm begging to beg you (chorus)
i'd like to say good-bye to a complicated mind
but when i walk and wave
i'm stalked all day
by california lives
and things i didn't try and the strangest colored eyes (chorus)
