

Nadia Ali, Runaway

Can we go away
and never turn around again
On an escapade
and always keep the vision Can we open out
and spread ourselves around the sand Captive the sun
keep the light till the world ends Runaway
Runaway
Take away the wall
and break away my defense Candle by our side and never let the rain begin We're a part of a plan and it's already written There is no other way it's inside our every sense Earth is our island Karma, am I yours
is that your intuition
If that is your word
I'm the definition
In our destinies
that is what was missing Echo in my mind
even through a distance
