

Nadja Benaissa, Won't Forget These Days

Won't forget these days
Heute feiern wir den Tag, feiern diese Zeit
Was eben noch die Zukunft war, ist nun die Wirklichkeit Will sie greifen, diese Tage will sie spren, will sie teilen mit der Welt (teilen mit der Welt) Will sehen, ob David Goliath flit Heut und hier verschmelzen Traum und Realitt wir werden zu einer Woge, der nichts mehr widersteht
Won't forget these days
and I never thought I would
Won't forget these days
Won't forget these days
and I never thought I would
Won't forget these days
And I never thought I, never thought I would Everyone's a winner
and we all are champions (Open your heart and let the game start)
Black man in golden open house for friends (Your invited to come, wherever you're from)
Young man take their dirty hands and swear (Nothing should come between us)
These days are unforgettable for everyone, who is there
Won't forget these days
and I never thought I would
Won't forget these days
Won't forget these days
and I never thought I would
Won't forget these days
(Won't forget these days)
I won't, I won't, I won't, I won't, I won't forget (forget these days)
I won't, I won't, I won't, I won't, I won't forget
(forget these days)
I won't forget (I won't forget)
And I never thought I would (never thought I would)
I won't forget (forget these days)
And I never thought I would (never the same)
Won't forget these days
and I never thought I would
Won't forget these days
(I won't forget these days)
Won't forget these days (Won't forget these days) and I never thought I would (These Days)
Won't forget these days
