

Nailbomb, 24 Hour Bullshit

When the screen turns it's too late
No ones to burn but yourself
I want to buy everything you got
No hope now for a tv junk

24 hour bullshit

I want out don't want your help

Spend my time
Fall in line now follow suit
It's my God and my religion

Beer, gun, car, tv
That's all I need
I want to buy everything you got
I could care less
