Nailpin, I'm Sorry

Sat down and talked about it
Considered every single fact
Stood up and we shook hands
Agreed to keep on being friends
Which part didn't you understand

Chorus:
Hey well I'm sorry we couldn't work things out
The way that we were supposed to do
And now you're saying that everything's my fault
Although the one who's wrong is you

Fed up with our discussions
Are you trying to let go
Just put this to an end
Man you don't seem to understand
You chose the wrong way to react

Chorus

Because you're pissing me off with all the bullshit you talk
All around me, all about me
You're pissing me off with all the shit you talk

Chorus

Hey well I'm sorry that we couldn't work things out (x2)
