

Najwa Nimri, All Clear

Like the flight of a butterfly
This is full of promises
All quiet
All clear
So you can hear

Like the flight of a butterfly
This is full of promises
All quiet
All clear
As you can hear

Like the flight of a butterfly
Like the flight of a butterfly

All quiet
All clear
So you can hear
You can hear

Only one world for each other
Would you want another? (x2)

Only one world can conceal
Such a loss for each other

And if you want to earn something to lose...
And if you want to earn something to lose...

...and rescue... To rescue
To rescue, to rescue

Making my space alone
Space alone
Space alone, space alone
I came to stay

Only one world can conceal
Such a loss for each other

Only one world for each other
Would you want another?
