

Najwa Nimri, One And Other Lies

This is a believer's song
This is a believer's song
Only one truth
Only one truth
And one and other lies

This is a believer's truth
This is a believer's truth
Human cradle
One more straggler
This is a believer's truth
It's only one
One and other lies

How to get started?
Naked and flowered
Breathing for the winds that don't care
For our beliefs

Where's my father? I miss my brothers

This is a believer's truth
Only one belief and truth
So that's the universal law

Learn to enjoy it more and more
I miss my father, i miss my brothers
So don't cry for a while
Take a chance
For hesitation and smiles

This is a believer's truth
Only one belief and truth
So that's the universal law
Learn to enjoy it more and more

This is a believer's truth
One and other lies

This is a believer's truth
Just one - one

No more lies, no more lies
This is...
