

Naked, Don't Cry

Winter comes for a reason to purge your soul with the change of the seasons I spin out of control

Where can I find you when you're not even there no where to find you Innocent eyes are blinded when the candle dies

Put your arms around him there'll be no sleep tonight

How can I help you,
when you're so far away?
No way to help you...
Should I pray?
Don't cry, wipe the tears from your eyes don't cry, sleep with the souls tonight

There's no where to run, no where to hide fear is a monster, no end in sight no screaming, silent screaming tonight close your eyes, dream There's no where to run, no where to hide
fear is a monster, no end in sight no screaming , scream it away tonight, close your eyes and pray.
