

Naked Lunch, Military Of The Heart

Hold on my dear you know I don't lie there is a star that shines for us I met my baby in the morning we had so much to give there we had so much to give this is the story of our romance these are the words to comprehend there is no end there's no beginning we're right here in the middle in the middle of this heat we built this city with our bare hands where every stone belongs to us come over now it's overwhelming cause we walk hand in hand now yes, we walk hand in hand on the day I found myself

I walk on with my seven inch boots I cross this planet in a day I madly climb the highest mountain I swim the deepest ocean only to be with you

this is the story of our romance
these are the words to comprehend
there is no end there's no beginning we don't need entertainment we entertain ourselves

I love my son and I love my daughter I love my girl and I love my friends I hope I die right in your arms then I don't need an illusion I don't need anything

on the day I found myself
