

Name Taken, Clear And Concious

We're still running
The waters coming
To take us back
Take us back
Will we sink when we start to swim against?
No, No
We'll be clean again

We slip and falter
We slip away

We're made of nothing (We slip and fall)
We've made nothing of ourselves
We're made of nothing (We slip away)
We made nothing of ourselves

Make me new again
So I can be clear and conscious of what I'm doing wrong
I want to be whole
I want to know more than I should

Keep talking
You'll say something that you can't take back
Can't take back
Will we stop when we get out of hand?
No, no we'll keep moving

Make me new again
So I can be clear and conscious of what I'm doing wrong
I want to be whole
I want to know more than I should

Just once let them try to make devils of us
And we'll let it go

Make me new again
So I can be clear and conscious of what I'm doing wrong
I want to be whole
I want to know more than I should
