

Namelessnumberheadman, Rest Assured

Crystal clear, I could hear a pin drop
I know you're near, peering through perched eyes.
Words appear, and pass away with trembling
The words I fear and choke to realize:
"Rest assured, my one true love."

Fireflies flicker in the moonlight
Faint replies, from eyes I've come to know.
Step with grace. Step with kind assistance
A steady gaze will guide you fast and low.

It was at the Lord's behest, that we were truly blessed.

"Rest assured my one true . . ."

See the light and always count for sound
It's moving faster at fifteen miles.
Please, don't leave us here.
Please, God, please don't leave us alone.
With you - we'll stay with you.

See the light and always count for sound/It's moving faster at fifteen miles. Please, don't leave us h
I'll kiss you awake.
