

Nami Miyahara, A Path -( Casshern SINS)

You listen to my voice,
Listen to my heart
Now I see it clearly
You listen to your voice,
Listen to your heart
Do you even smile?
There is nothing you cant do
Only you can do to make yourself happy
You listen to your voice,
Listen to your heart make yourself live
We are free like water flows
We are one
As we feel the love
How long will it take
To find our way out?
But she never lost her way
And made herself to home
So we hold each others hand
As we walk along the way
No more fears and tears to fall
We find our way to home
We are free like water flows
We are one
As we feel the love
How long will it take
To find our way out?
But she never lost her way
And made herself to home
So we hold each others hand
As we walk along the way
No more fears and tears to fall
We find our way to home
How long will it take
To find our way out?
But she never lost her way
And made herself to home
So we hold each others hand
As we walk along the way
No more fears and tears to fall
We find our way to home
You listen to my voice,
Listen to my heart
Now I see it clearly
You listen to your voice
listen to your heart do you even smile?
