

Nana Mouskouri, Endlessly

I love you just as you are
You mean the world to me
And my love for you
My love is endlessly

And you stepped right into my life
And gave me love chérie
And your love will always be
Endlessly

Endlessly
Like the tide that meets the shore
Endlessly
Till the universe closes its door
You're the wealth of my life
My source of energy
And my love for you my love is endlessly
And my love for you my love is endlessly
