

Nana Mouskouri, Forgive And Forget

Time to say
Let's forgive and forget
Time melts away
All the hurt and regret
For we live and learn
To forgive and forget
Love's foolish pride,
Deep inside
Turns to pain
I need you like flowers need the rain
Gently take me to your heart again
Let's forgive and forget

Love's foolish pride
Deep inside
Turns to pain
I need you like fire needs a flame
Warm and tender in your arms again
Let's forgive and forget
Forgive
Forget
