

Nana Mouskouri, If It's So Easy

They say that love is just a piece of cake
They tell me love is just a give and take
They make love sound like it comes easily
"if it's so easy, why was it so hard for me?"

They say that love will sparkle in his eyes
They tell me love's not hard to recognize
They make love sound like it's not hard to find
"if it's that easy, what was it made me so blind?"

Love is good and love is great
Then why don't they make love too good to break?
My friends tell me that I will love again
But I am wiser now than I was then
I've seen how easy love can change its mind
"it's just so easy, that's why I'm so scared this time"
"it's just so easy, that's why I'm so scared this time"
