

Nana Mouskouri, My Lover

My lover,when I'm in your arms
I surrender to your charms
My lover, just the thought of you
Fills my heart with love so true

You're the warmth of May
You're the song I sing
You're the air I breathe
In fact you are my everything
My lover,you're the glamour of
A boy in love,lover mine

You're the warmth of May
You're the song I sing
You're the air I breathe
In fact,you are my everything
My lover,you're the glamour of
A boy in love,lover mine
