

Naoki Kenji, My Destiny

I'm am aware now about the difference between you and me i'm sailing all alone in the cold and empty room i like awakened night cause your shadow is following me everything goes round and round and round and round and...
taught when you were gone there's nothing right or wrong this is my destiny (my destiny, my destiny) kind time for healing the wounds you cause face my illusions now that i can see the light breath in my heart and soul find ? grown no matter how hard i try the pain you caused went on and on...
this is this is this is my destiny
yeah, this is my destiny
