

Napalm Death, If Symptoms Persist

Fate has brought us here
Picture getting clear
See right through you
I see right through you
I feel for no one
Where have my feelings gone?

All too powerful
Witness this as I stand the test of time
In eternal sleep
You gave me your word
More than life itself

I breathe new life

Help save me from life-taking actions
Which will destroy myself
I can't destroy myself

There is no defence like this confidence
Ideas dawn upon seeking relevance
There's no turning back
There's no turning back
