

Narrow Head, Gearhead

Worn out
Sinking down
The weight is hard to carry
It pulls us out

Into the silence now

Alone again is time well spent
Alone forever falling

Face the guilt now
Drag it out
Face the guilt now
Bury it
dig it up

How long before we learn to Confront ourselves?

Into the silence now

Alone again is time well spent
Alone forever falling
Alone again is time well spent
Alone forever falling
