I'm the most wanted baby fathe, save the drama We toast when I wine and dine ya -- all you need is me I won't stress you but bless you Mentally and sexual, we both intellectual Can't forget how I met you; you thought I was a boxer -- Prince Nasim but I'm the mobster -- Nas from Queens And when I gotcha - you ridin with me You keep askin, " When do you have time for me?" I'm never free always on the move, bidness oriented Lifestyle expensive, attract women You wanna search my pockets, and act all wild Say I hurt your heart - ask how could I smile? Wanna call back all my numbers - star 6-9 me Check my car for rubbers, but quit tryin before you find what you lookin for and get to cryin You always sayin what you gon' do if you catch me lyin

[Chorus One: Aaliyah + (Timbaland) + {Nas}]

You won't see me tonight {Yeah right} (Say what? Say what?) You won't see me tomorrow {uh-huh} (uh-huh) I'll be gone by daylight {Doubt that} (What?) And you'll be so full of sorrow {Yeah right} You'll go tell all your friends {That's right} (Say what?) how you called and I follow {They know it} But you won't see me tonight {You don't believe that} No you won't see me tomorrow

[Nas]

Speak up, I wanna know if you can keep up Timberland boots for girls, with the tree stump Baggy sweatsuits, mystery what's underneath them They for my eyes only, you call me when you lonely but I like to make the baddest girls wait, I got G baby
