

Nasty Boy Clique, Perfect Man

Special Dedication
For All The Ladys Out There
In This Whole World, Looking For That Perfect Man

When i was a little girl,
I would sit and dream,
Hopin' I would find,
find the perfect man
Now that i can see,
true reality
Tear drops fill my eyes, cuz there is no Perfect man

It seems like everyone in this world is lookin for perfection but how do we find something that doesn't exist?
know what I'm saying? mamacita...
I would give my life for you, no matter what the situation last days of hope, trials and tribulations frustrations, killin every woman and man if you can see what i see, then you might understand that i could never be a perfect man, up in this chaos a soul, with a musical dream like armadias I've given everything, sweat, blood 'n tears and made a vow to the lord to stay for a million years i guess too much is never enough, when the silence in our souls begins to erupt so forgive me girl, if i ruined your plan cuz i can only try, but never be a perfect man

When i was a little girl,
I would sit and dream,
Hopin' I would find,
find the perfect man
Now that i can see,
(dedicated)
true reality,
(to my little girl)
Tear drops fill my eyes,
(i love you deisha)
cuz there is no Perfect man

11/98, god bless me with a perfect baby girl, such an imperfect world, i cried when she took her first breath why god? when this world is filled with hate and disease most for overceaced, and when the catastrophes, forward to this new millennium, she'll be one and a half, too young to understand and lord know, this man and his lives not perfect, my mistakes are her learnin' points hopin she can learn from them so many caught up in the fast lane lovers of themselves, greed, or lust her little hand got in this man, her little heart, holdin all my trust I'm eye to eye with my destiny i can't believe i'm staring god's masterpiece face to face, you'll never understand how much you've changed this man who has to learn from scratch. on how to raise a woman cuz if perfection is needed, i gaurantee to be everything she dreams

When i was a little girl,
I would sit and dream,
Hopin' I would find,
find the perfect man
Now that i can see, (yea) true reality (this goes out ...to the girl i love) Tear drops fill my eyes, (i love you baby..best believe that) cuz there is no Perfect man

there's been some time with me, you were still shinin' who'd imagine, it'd be you i'd be findin' some one so real, who took care'my heart anybody, if they'd try, couldn't' pull us apart you were there from day one, til this present time working hard for the money when i couldn't get mine you should be the definition of what love really is i know every man wish their girl was like this i put you through some things, best believe that i'm sorry my love goes out to you, no one fits your category you don't' talk back, and respect what i say. independent, strong woman no time for child's play deserve more than i've got and you still stick around i'm not the perfect man but for you, i'll bow down. i wanna be your man 'til the lord takes us to the clouds ain't no perfect men, but perfect women are around...

When i was a little girl,
I would sit and dream,
Hopin' I would find,
find the perfect man
Now that i can see,
true reality
Tear drops fill my eyes,
