

Nat Gonella, Don't Let Your Love Go Wrong

don't let your eyes go googa don't let your mind go gaga don't let yourself get hotcha don't let your love go wrong don't let the moonlight get you don't let a stranger pet you don't let a kiss upset you

remember who you're promised to no matter where or when you feel a thrill against your will count up to ten and be yourself again don't let your nerves go haha don't let your heart go boomba don't let your minds go gaga
