

Nat King Cole, Road To Nowhere

(Kane/Ecton)

Goodbye, lonely heartache,
Farewell, bitter tears.
I'm leaving forever,
And not just for years.

You're home again, darling,
And I love you so.
But you love another,
That's why I must go.

Down the road to nowhere,
I'll wander my lonely days through.
Down the road to nowhere,
I'm nowhere at all without you.

Our favorite places
That made moments fly
Just can't be forgotten,
But still I must try.

The dance where I met you
When you walked my way,
I cry when I pass them
So I'll drift away.

Down the road to nowhere,
I'll wander my lonely days through.
Down the road to nowhere,
I'm nowhere at all without you...
I'm nowhere at all without you...
I'm nowhere at all without you.
