

Nat Stuckey, Raining In My Heart

Raining in my heart since we've been apart
I know I was wrong darling please come on home

You've got me crying bout to lose my mind
Don't let me cry in vain try my love just once again
[guitar]
Now honey I need your love darling you know why
So if you just come on back home why there'll be no need in me to cry
Raining in my heart...
