

Nat Stuckey, To My Sorrow

(To my sorrow you're in my heart)

To my sorrow I loved you only cause you told me your heart was true

Then you left me to love another to my sorrow I trusted you

Only time can heal this longing in my heart dear

And somebody else may help me to forget

Oh I should hate you for all these heartaches but to my sorrow I love you yet

Maybe someday when your head has turned to silver

You'll be sorry that you said we had to part

Though I'm smiling inside I'm crying cause to my sorrow you're in my heart
