

Natalia Druyts, You're Gonna Get There

No matter what they think or what they do no matter what they feel or what they see in you you're gonna get there whatever they say You're gonna get there,mmmh

No matter what you feel or what you do
no matter what you feel
I see your dreams come true You're gonna get there
whatever you say

and i'll be with you all the way

I believe in tomorrow
I believe in me
free yourself and show the world a smile upon your face.

sometimes it's hard to see you're not alone sometimes you need to know that I won't go it's all inside you have some faith
Cause one day you'll wake up and say

I believe in tomorrow
ibelieve in me
I believe in tomorrow

find your love in strenght whitin your way the more you live,the more beautiful you are so free yourself and show the world a smile upon your face
