

Natalia, Feels So Good

Feels so good

Got my attention
No apprehension
And did I mention the chemistry?
We felt between us
Round trip to Venus
Got back to earth
You knocked me off my feet.

I'm so elated
Sophisticated
You got me feeling electrified
No rhyme or reason
This is the season
Our love is definitely certified

Feels like the sun has kissed my soul
Set me on fire
The missing piece
That finally makes me feel complete
