

Natalia Krakowiak, Secrets

You have secrets in your hands
No one will find you in the night

So I'm falling back into gravity
Emptiness consumes me
And I know you will
Pay for everything
Every time you lose me

You said you will be on my side
It just turned out to be a lie

o I'm falling back into gravity
Emptiness consumes me
And I know you will
Pay for everything
Every time you lose me

o I'm falling back into gravity
Emptiness consumes me
And I know you will
Pay for everything
Every time you lose me
