

Natalia Kukulska, Please Tell Me Daddy

Who's selling new dresses from shells
What spiders are living in grass
Does every princess have a palace
Which is made out of glass
Why once I am brownie with malice
And later I'm timid and shy

Please tell me daddy
Please tell me daddy
Please daddy don't leave me
But just try to give me some tips

Please tell me daddy
Please tell me daddy
Your answers are missing
So please stop you're kissing my lips

Who makes the young rabbits run rite
Must monkeys produce such a noise
Why always they tell me be quiet
If I have my own voice
Should daddy be still on a diet
Will tempests and storms ever die

Please tell me daddy
Please tell me daddy
Please daddy don't leave me
But just try to give me some tips

Please tell me daddy
Please tell me daddy
Your answers are missing
So please stop you're kissing my lips
He sleeps
