

Natalia 'Natu' Przybysz, Wake me

Soon as first beam of light
Touches her, touches sky
She gets up to the world
With her heart, with her song
Wake me, shake me
Don't let sleep too late
Wake me, shake me
I don't want to miss a thing
Wake me- shake me
Don't let me die in bed
Wake me, shake me
Get up and do my thing
Stretching legs, longing spine
Gazing eyes, tender smile
She's so fresh, she's so fine
Got her space in her mind
Get some new space in the morning
Wake me, shake me
Don't let sleep too late
Wake me, shake me
I don't want to miss a thing
Wake me- shake me
Don't let me die in bed
Wake me, shake me
And make me get up and do my thing
Seems like every time I wake up
I feel the fresh air
Seems like every time I wake up
My whole life can be set up
I believe that when we'll wake up
Whole world can be free
But until that day when we'll wake up
I'll keep myself awake
