

Natalia, Some Things Are Meant To Be

I know that you got feelings
For me like I got feelings for you
So shouldn't you be reaching
For me like I keep reaching for you
Save yourself a lot of trouble
Tryin' to fight it
There is just no way you can

No, you can't stop the river
From rollin' to the ocean
It's a destiny that the good Lord put into motion
Like a baby's tears and a mothers devotion
Some things are meant to be
And one of them is you and me

Something in your eyes is showin'
Me you don't want me going away
I feel it when you're holdin' me
You want me to hold you always
It's time to let your guard down
And go with it
It's what we're born to do

No, you can't stop the river
From rollin' to the ocean
It's a destiny that the good Lord put into motion
Like a baby's tears and a mothers devotion
Some things are meant to be
And one of them is you and me

No, you can't stop the river
From rollin' to the ocean
It's a destiny that the good Lord put into motion
Like a baby's tears and a mothers devotion
Some things are meant to be
And one of them is you and me
