

Natalie Bassingthwaighte, Remember Me

I've been looking for you everywhere
Even searching in the dark
I've been calling in the pouring rain
I don't know where you are Sometimes I feel I'm barely hanging on
If I let go this love will die
And I don't think I could forgive myself
If I let you say good bye
Remember me
I'm the one who never let you down
Remember me
Look into my eyes
Don't you even recognize me now
What do you think you'll find in leaving me
(What do you think you'll find)
To make you throw away my heart
(You just can't throw away my heart)
Got to find a way to pull you back to me
Before you go too far
Remember me
I'm the one who never let you down
Remember me
Look into my eyes
Don't you even recognize me now
Remember me
I'm the one who never let you down
Remember me
I'm the one who loves you
Remember me
I'm the one who never let you down
Remember me
Look into my eyes
Don't you even recognize me now (I'm the one who loves you)
Like I said before
I never let you down
Just open up your heart
And remember me
Like I remember you
