

Natalie Burks, Under The Moonlight

I'll wait here to play a song tonight
You'll be under the pale moonlight
With me, my love

I need you to show me your loving way
Like a flower in the rain
So soft and all alone

To feel your touch
To see your smile
But I can't find you

Hear your voice
Taste your lips
You know I want to

To think of you
Only you
You're on my mind

I'll wait here to play you a song tonight

To feel your touch
To see your smile
But I can't find you

To think of you
Only you
You're on my mind

I need you to show me your loving way
Like a flower in the rain
So soft and all alone

I'll wait here to play you a song tonight
You'll be under the pale under the pale under the pale moonlight.
