

Natalie Durham, Invincible

somebody told me that you were cryin
i didnt want to know invincible you seemed to me now i dont want this life any more somebody told me all about hell and that i shouldnt go i said i didnt care and i would face it oh if i'd only known somebody told me there would be fightin and i'd get knocked to the floor on the ground and staring at blue skys only the birds and i know

nobody told me about this life i swear i wouldnt have come and now im stuck here without a prayer nowhere to go but home
