

Natalie Grant, All I See

Breathe on me
In my brokenness
Cover me
With Your holiness

Whisper words of hope
And let me know
In all I'm going through
You will carry me and not let go
And You'll hide my heart in You

All I see
Is something that is beautiful
Takes my breath away
The treasures of
The Father's heart are bountiful
In this Heavenly place

So much love
Flowing free from You
Boundless grace
Overwhelming me
Let me do the work You've called me to
And to never walk away
To live a life that pleases You
And glorifies Your name

And I will look forward to
This endless day
I will lift my voice
In endless praise
