

Natalie Grant, Another Day

Been driving through the night
I pull up and see the lights
This is the place that I call home
I watch you as you sleep
Think of all you mean to me
Touch your face
Kiss you softly
Before I go to sleep I pray under the stars
Search my soul and check my heart
And thank God for

CHORUS:

Another day
Another chance to love the ones I love
To find my way
To laugh, to dance
Watch the sun come up
Another day I get to live
As if
Every breath could be the last I take

I get another day

I've got a hand that I can hold
Someone who knows my soul
A safe place to lay my head at night
So why do I forget
How much I've been blessed in life
Forget what means the most to me
As I'm waking up again I feel my breathing heart
So grateful that I've come this far
And thank God for

Chorus

To make somebody smile
Go the extra mile
Take a wrong and make it right
And try to touch somebody's life
I get another day
