

Natalie Grant, Just A Glimpse

I don't have to fully know
Just how far Your love can go
To sing of Your love for me

I don't have to comprehend
How Your mercy never ends
To sing of Your mercy

And all I need is
All I really need is

Just a glimpse of You
And I'm in awe
Just a glimpse of You
My God
Just a glimpse of You
And all I can do is worship
(All I can do is worship You Lord Yea)

And I don't have to clearly see
How amazing grace can be
To sing of Your grace for me

And I don't have to fully grasp
The measure of Your holiness
To sing holy holy

And all I need is
All I really need is

Just a glimpse of You
And I'm in awe
Just a glimpse of You
My God
Just a glimpse of You
And all I can do is worship

I worship You
I worship You
I worship You

Just a glimpse of You
And I stand in awe
Just a glimpse of You
You take my breathe away
My God
Just a glimpse of You
And all I can do is worship

Just a glimpse of You (just a glimpse of You and I'm in awe)
And I'm in awe
Just a glimpse of You (a glimpse of show me Your glory)
My God
Just a glimpse of You
And all I can do is worship

Just a glimpse of You
Just a glimpse of You (oh God I stand in wonder)
My God (and amazement of You)
Just a glimpse of You
And all I can do is worship

All go ahead and worship him tonight

We worship You (I worship You)
We lift up our voices in praise
And thanksgiving Lord (I worship You)
We worship You
I worship You

We worship You Lord
In spirit and truth
We worship You
We stand in child like amazement
Oh with our eyes wide open
We worship You
With our hands stretched wide
We worship You
With our hearts wide open Lord
We worship You
