

Natalie Grant, That's When I'll Give Up (On Lovin

No heartbeat is always steady Angels have halos already Please- don't think you're proving yourself all the time
I don't need you to be perfect
I know the wait will be worth it
You and me baby we're only just learning to shine

You should know this my love
How far I'll go here's when I'll give up

(Chorus)
When the sun is coming up at midnight
When the clocks have all run out of time
When the snow- falls in june
That's when I'll give up (on loving you)
When the earth is finished spinning around
When it's raining up instead of down
When a dream-can't come true
When the rivers all run out of blue
That's when I'll give up (on loving you)

You'll never run out of chances
I don't need you to have all the answers
Love isn't something that has to be Put to the test

Love like this can't be undone
I'm telling you
If the day should come

(Repeat Chorus)

As you're walking through the world
You gotta know
I'll be with you everywhere you go
You can spread your wings or run
Back to my arms
I will always hold you in my heart- baby

You'll always be a part of me
Baby can't you see

(Repeat Chorus)
