

Natalie Imbruglia, On My Way

Woke up wanting for nothing
Good things coming my way
I bet people will notice
I bet today is the day

So say it like you mean it
I'm saying we got every chance
Don't break it you can heal it
Just put your hand in my hand

I am aiming higher
Older and wiser
This feel
Could be real
On my way
Life should be sweter
Rise up and meet her
This feel
Could be real
On my way

I am done looking for trouble
I will do me for a change
No more healing the hopeless
No more need to explain

So say it like you mean it
I'm saying we got every chance
Don't break it you can heal it
Just put your hand in my hand

I am aiming higher
Older and wiser
This feel
Could be real
On my way
Life should be sweter
Rise up and meet her
This feel
Could be real
On my way
