Natalie Merchant, Put The Law On You

Do I have to put the law on you baby for all the wicked thing you do Am I gonna have to put the law on you baby That was not what I wanted to do

Do I have to put the law on you baby to try to make you come out clean for every evil deed You're just about the lowest and the dirtiest thing I've ever seen

Did you really think you could pull it off the perfect crime, crime of the heart Do you really think you'll get away do the crime and never pay

Do I have to put the law on you baby lock you up and throw away the key for the countless counts of low down double-cross you've been about Have you no decency

Did you really think that you could pull it off the perfect crime, crime of the heart Do you really think that you'll get away Escape my justice until your dying day

Though you made it clear from the very start there was no trusting you with my foolish heart Though you maybe made it clear that didn't make it right So you really think you'll get away You can't escape my justice 'till my dying day
