

Natasha Bedingfield, Angel

Just like a shadow
I'll be beside you
I'll be your comfort
I'm there to guide you home
I will provide you a place of shelter
I want a be your zone

Do, do, do..
Tell me what you wanted me to do
I'll make it great to be a man
With a woman who can stand
On every promise, giving,
Making vows to please her man

If I could be your angel
Your angel, your angel
Protect you from the pain
I'll keep you safe from danger
You'll never hurt again, no more
I'll be your a.n.g.e.l
I'm gonna be your a.n.g.e.l
I'll be your angel

Just like the moon
I'll step aside
And let your sun shine
While I follow behind
Cause baby what ya got
You deserve all the props
With everything I'm not
I'm so glad your mine!

Do, do, do
Tell me what you wanted me to do
I'll make it great to be a man
With a woman who can stand
On every promise, giving,
Making vows to please her man

If I could be your angel
Your angel, your angel
Protect you from the pain
I'll keep you safe from danger
You'll never hurt again
I'll be your a.n.g.e.l
I'm gonna be your a.n.g.e.l
I'll be your angel.

Tell me why there's so many good men
In the world, misunderstood
He's a dog, he's no good
I wish somebody would
Disrespect my man
You're gonna have to come see me
I go hard for my baby
He's all that I need

So if you got a good one
Put your hands up,
Come on girl and stand up
Go ahead lift your man up
Get up
If you got a good one, put your hands up

Get up
If you got a good one, stand up
Come on girl, and stand up

If I could be your angel
Your angel, your angel
I'll be your a.n.g.e.l
I'm gonna be your a.n.g.e.l
