

Natasha Thomas, Chasing Love

Seems it's always like this
Never ending
I can't stay away
And I take my chances
Put my heart out
Hopin' it won't break
When that moment comes
It wipes away all of the tears I've cried
As it takes me over
Elevates me here
Gives me wings to fly

Sometimes when nothin' turns out right
I wonder if it's worth the fight
Sometimes I wish that I could say
That I've had enough
Still I keep on goin' back for more
Cause there's one thing that I can't get tired of
And that's chasing love

We just give and give in hope of getting
Something in return
All the times I've fallen
Even though I knew that I'd get hurt
I'm still looking for you
Reachin' out
Still waiting for my turn

And wherever it may lead me I'll follow I'm there
I'm not givin' in I'm not givin' up
I've been waitin' all my life for this moment to share
I'll be hangin' on and no matter what
I'll be chasin' love
