

Nate Dogg, The Hardest Man In Town

Would the hardest man please stand, the homie stood right up!
Saggin pants, gat in hand, the nigga was a nut!
Looney looking, OG, been bangin from the jump Dressed in all black, ready to jack, and he still dont give a fk
A friend of of mine, he used to be, before I got caught up
He used to roll with me, back in ninety-three when I was broke as fk, be prepared to blast
That's all that he at, because he used to ride with you We gonna make some cash, and blast, you can toss him when you're through

Chorus

The hardest man in town
The hardest man in town
The hardest man in town
The hardest man around

Little big man, don't you see me lying here
Pick me up, if you dare
I'll make you're life easier, 'cause I'll be pumpin fear

Disrespect, you don't have to take
If you see them coming, just wave me in his face but you ain't the only one that got a friend like me
So hurry up, let's go, I'm kind of tired of being broke
I know you gotta get paid, I can show you the way
So take me home, polish the chrome
Load me up, and put me to his dome
I got a lot work to do, so toss me and be gone

You're a big man now
You're a big man now
You're a big man now
You're a big man now

I told you once before I'm pumping fear nobody's gonna step to you, let them know I'm here and if you have questions in the corner of your mind pull the trigga, and leave your questions behind

Chorus until fade
