Nattefrost, Ancient Devil Worshipping

Cold, cold suicide winds From the misty mountains Eternally trapped in this frozen hell In this grim black forest

Cold winds, cruel winter Heathen earth, black blood

A guest from a haunting wind From the lands of phantoms The order of the elder ones Who travel with death

Root of evil from the past Timeless memories becomes dust

Black eternal fking sin Ancient Devil worshipping

Cold sleeping bottomless lakes Waiting to be discovered All paths lead to certain death The spirit of malignant glory

Silent watcher, evil eye
Silent watcher in the cold...
...unholy black demon soil
Awakes the animal inside
Made strong by the sacrifice
Blood of holy, blood of Christ !!!

Black eternal fking sin Ancient Devil worshipping...

["Worship Satan and follow the path of Death"]
