

Nature Living, Last Page Of My Mind

This is your decision
It's a shame what you have been through
We are walk together so don't be worries
I keep your smile from today just began
I'm looking for my future
What is your style what you know about myself
It is only for purpose

I sending for you letter
I always think together
Its beautiful things in you mind
I knew that you did it better than I

Way, long way
Say over and over
