

Naughty Boy, Undo (ft. Calum Scott, Shenseea)

last time
we hit the ending for the last time no more pretending no I can't lie I need you more than ever before you meant that and yesterday

I told myself exactly what to say but I am lost for words when you got me face to face I need you more than ever before

I can never undo what I did hat I did to you and I can never rewind every time that I hear the truth I been taking it back to what we had don't know how the react if I lose you

you gotta let me undo it
you gotta let me undo it
you gotta let me undo it

I can believe you got me questioning an answer machine another chance is all I'll ever need and I swear that I'll never need and I swear that I'll forever be yours

[Shenseea:]

I can never undo what I did hat I did to you
and I can never rewind every time that I hear the truth
I been taking it back to what we had

you gotta let me undo it

last time
I need you more than ever before

I could turn back
turn back time
I would turn back
turn back time
I could turn back
turn back time
