

Nayaree, A Ususal Story

I see an old man waking up today□
Hes asking What for?
I hear an old man thinking today
What can he have more?
Something is calling so he needs
To start to believe
That this struggles just beginning
Cause he still wants to see the light!

Hey...
Why does he choose to live?
What can this day bring him?
Hey...
Why does he choose to live?
Maybe he wants to win

Its just a usual story

Hey...
Why does he choose to live?
What can this day bring him?
Hey...
Why does he choose to live?
What can this day bring him?
Hey...
Why does he choose to live?
What can this day bring him?
Hey...
Why does he choose to live?
Maybe he wants to win

Its just a usual story
Its such a usual story

The sun shines when you want it to shine
And youre right,
Your life is your fight.
The old man here is me.
We live a life that seems to be
A lost reality
Yeah, hey

Its just a usual story
Its such a usual story
Its just a usual story
