Nazareth, Gloria

I had it all
Or I thought so anyway
And then there came the day
When I knew I'd been deceived.

It was tailor made
The hole I'd dug myself
That morning they came knocking
Couldn't blame nobody else.

You make mistakes
Then you make them all again
And find yourself deserted
By the people you called friends.

All it takes
Is for one deal to go bad
You're signing your confession
As they take all that you have.

And all this years spent sitting here Waiting to be free.

My day has come And I can finally see.

Gloria-ah-ah-ah-ah Gloria-ah-ah-ah-ah Gloria-ah-ah-ah.

I've dreamed of waking up beyond that wall It looks like I might make it after all.

There's a kid in here Reminds me of my son I watch him with the others When they laugh about what they've done.

So many ways To impress one so young The day they let him out of here He's gonna find himself a gun.

I tried to say
Tried to make him understand
Fear is not respect
And it won't make a boy a man
Oh, you make mistakes
And you make them all again
It seems that I offended
One of those godforsaken men.

In all these years spent sitting here The last thing that I see Is a baby face With a blade that's made for me.

Gloria-ah-ah-ah-ah Gloria-ah-ah-ah-ah Gloria-ah-ah-ah-ah.

I guess some things were never meant to be.

Gloria-ah-ah-ah

Gloria-ah-ah-ah-ah Gloria-ah-ah-ah.

So open up that gate and welcome me My spirits flown And I'm finally free Finally free... yeah!
